It has become tradition at Chowan in the past for the Yearbook to be dedicated to an outstanding member of the faculty or administration

It is the dream of each yearbook staff to set tradition aside and aim for the new with hopes of making their ideas tradition of the future.

Instead of choosing this person ourselves, the staff this year let the student body choose, by ballot in chapel, the faculty member whom they felt deserved this honor in hopes of making tradition.

Here are the members of our faculty and administration who have had the honor in the past eight years:

MR. JACK HASSELL-1966
Supt. of Buildings and Grounds

MR. L. M. WALLACE-1966
Asst. Dean of Men

WILLIAM B. SOWELL-1967
Professor in Graphic Arts

DR. ELLA PIERCE-1968
Dept. of English

DR. B. FRANKLIN LOWE,JR.-1969
Dean of the College

MR. JERRY HAWKINS-1970
Coach

MRS. DAISY LOU MIXON-1971
Department of Religion

MRS. JEANNE F. KING-1972
Dept. of English

DEDICATION

Each year, the student body votes to select a member of the faculty to whom THE CHOWANOKA is dedicated.

Mrs. Undine Barnhill

In 1965, this year's professor came to Chowan College. For eight years, her efforts to educate and understand students have been unceasing. Having become one of the best liked professors at Chowan the students wish to dedicate the 1973 CHOWANOKA to Mrs. Undine Barnhill.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

About THE CHOWANOKA . . .

THE CHOWANOKA is an important, eagerly awaited and sought annual publication of Chowan College. It is prepared primarily by and for students.

Each year THE CHOWANOKA, requiring a great deal of time and effort on the part of the staff, is a significant historical reference. This is especially true this year when we are celebrating our 125th anniversary. It will provide us a further opportunity to reflect upon our rich heritage. I am confident that it will be of such nature and quality as to become a treasured possession of each member of the student body, faculty and staff. I know that during each of my 15 years as President of Chowan, I have kept and treasured each edition. You may be sure that this is true as regards this 125th anniversary edition.

Not only do I express appreciation and gratitude to THE CHOWANOKA staff, including faculty advisers and students within the Department of Graphic Arts for printing this volume, but I want to extend to one and all hearty congratulations, commendations and best wishes as true Chowanians, now and always. I love this beloved institution of Christian higher education, as you do, and I know these sentiments will grow and keep us bound together as the years come and go.

I cherish the people who comprise the Chowan College Family. Moreover, I pledge you that those of us who are "fixtures" here will put forth great effort in order to make you proud of the progress, program and service of your alma mater. Keep in touch and support her with your best--love, prayers, influence, and financial support. May God Bless and guide you, one and all.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING 1972-73

Homecoming festivities began October 21, 1972 at ten o'clock with a parade through downtown Murfreesboro. Highlighting the parade were the Homecoming Court, area high school bands, and various floats. At two o'clock the Braves played Harford Junior College and carried a 17-0 victory into the locker room. Performing during the half-time show was the Kellam High School Band from Virginia Beach, Virginia. Wrapping up the game activities was the crowning of the Queen and Princess by President Whitaker during half-time. The eventful day ended with a formal dance for the student body in Thomas Cafeteria.

Flourishing Chowan Talent Performs For Charity

On November 2, the Chowan students sponsored a talent show with contributions going to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. There was a wide variety of talent exhibited by Chowan students. Mr. Douglas Eubank of the Department of Fine Arts, was the master of ceremonies.

Founder's Day Ceremonies Highlighted By Scott Visit

October 11, 1972, was the marking of another Founder's Day Celebration in the history of Chowan College. North Carolina Governor Robert Scott spoke to the assembled students, faculty, and general public.

It was particularly appropriate for Governor Scott to speak on this occasion since his father, the late Kerr Scott, spoke to the Chowan students twenty-five years ago when the college was re-opened.

Following the Governor's speech, a reception in Mr. Scott's honor was attended by many students and members of the administrative staff. The 125th birthday of Chowan came to a close with a premiere showing of "The Dare to Be" and tours of Daniel Hall and Whitaker Library.

This year Chowan is celebrating its 125th Anniversary. The next ten pages reveal the past history of Chowan in pictures.

Chowan opened its doors to young women of the area in 1848 as the Chowan Baptist Female Institute. Dr. Godwin Cotton Moore of Hertford County is considered to be the founder of the college. It was through his efforts to see that young women get an education that Chowan Baptist Female Institute was founded. The college was first located in the old Hertford Academy building but in 1851, the college moved to McDowell Columns, a building now used as the administration headquarters. In 1910, its name was changed to Chowan College.

During the Civil War while many Southern colleges had to close their doors, Chowan College remained open. By the end of the nineteenth century, Chowan was recognized throughout the South for its high standards in scholarship and culture. The college grew rapidly in the twentieth century until World War II when the college closed its doors in 1943. Since it reopened in 1949, Chowan College has experienced a phenomenal growth in enrollment and physical facilities. Chowan College is now fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

THE BOOKMARK

With word and word

its wondrous pictures without end.

And should the book
be laid aside
the bookmark shows the rendezvous where words and minds shall meet again.
